

A Survival Guide for New and Aspiring Teachers

Thursday, May 14, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm
Hauppauge High School, Room 211

In the current economic and political climate, it can be challenging to secure a teaching or administrative position. How do you maximize your chances of success in your job search?

During this 90-minute workshop, you will learn commonly used acronyms in the education world, tips to finding teaching positions and strategies that will help you keep your current position. The Mid East Suffolk Teacher Center, Phi Delta Kappa Stony Brook Chapter and Stony Brook University will share the wealth of professional resources that are available to you in your career as a classroom teacher.

Speakers

- Robert Cangero, Coordinator, South Huntington Teacher Mentor Program
- Kristine Cucinello, Executive Director, Mid East Suffolk Teacher Center
- Ken Lindblom, Associate Professor in the Department of English, Director of the English Teacher Education Program, Stony Brook University
